

Great Things are Buzzin @ The Hive!

January 2020 Newsletter

To: Jed Dilley

From: Spencer Huff

He helped me to finish an assignment and truly understand how to do it.

To: Tanner Nichols

From: Jemmie Milligan

Tanner helped me start to weld because I didn't know what I was doing. It didn't work, but he still attempted to help me anyway.

To: Jared Mackay

From: Anonymous

He went to class and worked hard even though he didn't want to.

To: Asher Davis

From: Anonymous

Asher is so incredibly smart and driven. I have loved watching her work hard to achieve her goals!

To: Lexi Parker

From: Mitzi Stewart

Lexi was quick to help out a fellow classmate when he was having issues with his computer. She was kind and helpful. Way to go Lexi!

To: Grace Packer

From: Jemmie Milligan

Grace is always in such a good mood. It's very hard to put her down. Her positive attitude helps make others smile.

To: Shaun Thompson

From: Mitzi Stewart

Shaun held the door open for a classmate with crutches! What a stand up guy!

To: Aricka Jorgensen

From: Anonymous

Working extremely hard in class and during BeeTime.

To: Devin Dyer and Jonathan Newman

From: Anonymous

It was noticed that Devin and Jonathan held the Madison doors open for students leaving and entering the building without being asked to do so. Thanks also to any other students who also performed this kind of service that day!

To: Wrestling Team

From: Jemmie Milligan

They try so hard to make our school satisfied. They work hard and it's definitely paying off! Go Bees!

To: Thad Putnam

From: Anonymous

Being a dependable student and getting his work done.

To: Elena Olson

From: Anonymous

Being a great example to those around her.

To: Abi Mason

From: Heber Clawson

She helped me pick up my papers when they fell on the ground. A true American hero story.

To: Mike Reeder

From: Jemmie Milligan

If you ever need to chill or talk to someone, he's there to listen. There's not a day when he sees me that he doesn't say hi. Go talk to Reeder!

To: Marshall Norton

From: Joseph Stuart

He sat by the BeeBuddies (Special Needs class) during lunch and talked to the kids. He was being fun with them and made them laugh.

To: Seth Hansen

From: Jemmie Milligan

Not a day goes by when he doesn't ask me how my day is going!

To: Jed Craner

From: Anonymous

He is a great coach and mentor to the wrestlers. He organized and ran the Richardson Memorial Wrestling Tournament and did an amazing job making everyone feel appreciated.

To: Officer Thomas

From: Anonymous

On his way home after school, he stopped and helped some students that were having some car trouble.

To: Gwen Evans

From: Kris Thompson

Another student was having a bad day and Gwen went out of her way to make that student feel better and let her know someone cared. Way to go Gwen for watching out for your peers.

To: Mr. Davidson and Mr. Roberts Band

From: Anonymous

Sang in the talent show. I was really struggling that morning with motivation to go to school because I was so upset and stressed for school and the different things happening in my life. And when I heard them sing that song, it gave me hope for the rest of the day and week.

To: Manuel Zafra

From: Jemmie Milligan

There wasn't a time when we were walking that Manny didn't talk to another student who was sitting alone. He either says hi, or simply asks how their day is 😊

To: Allie Reeder

From: Jemmie Milligan

Allie always has a positive attitude. Whenever I see her, she always has a smile on her face.

To: Conner Mickelson

From: Jemmie Milligan

Conner has a magic talent that he uses to put others in a good mood when he sees that they're in a bad mood.
